

After reviewing more than a dozen studies which clearly demonstrate overwhelming interference to existing services I feel compelled to record my strong feelings against the proposal of BPL. There can be little question that BPL will cause havoc to many services. This has been objectively demonstrated in many worldwide studies.